Q13 - What did you DISLIKE the most about this course? Please feel free to be brutally honest. Your suggestions help future students.

What did you DISLIKE the most about this course? Please feel free to be bru...

There was honestly nothing that I really disliked about the class.

The course was pleasant and there were no dislikes about the course.

The weekly homework and quizzes. But I understand the reasoning behind them.

I disliked the weekly homework assignments and the weekly quizzes. But then again, I understand the instructor's purpose for the weekly work.

The readings were a bit dull

Didn't really go along with the book

I didn't dislike anything from the course. The only thing was that he might take a while to post up some of the grades.

Being away from my kids during class and while doing homework.

There was nothing o dislike because the professor is friendly and always tries his best to make sure everyone understands

I love this course there wasn't anything wrong with it.

I think being behind in chapters,I think learning th material then reading the chapter then doing homework is better way.

NA

I did not like the time of the course.

I came into this to get my private pilots license for my own enjoyment and didn't seem to have as much prior knowledge as the others, and I feel it was assumed that I knew how the FAA and licensing procedures are supposed to go. I'm still unclear about a lot of things regarding attaining my license that weren't covered in class.

The main dislike of this course is the way the class can be boring with regulations and other materials, but Professor Walden made the most boring class topics easier to sit through.

Perhaps the emphasis on the exams, namely the fact you could not at any point score a low exam grade.

I have no complaints about this course.

The instructor gets off topic alot, but he does keeps the class very interesting.

What time the class was at and how long it was.

The class time was 3 hours.

I would have liked the course to have followed the same procedures all the way through to the end. Some things that we were told we were going to do, we never did. Some more thorough explanations about how to use our e6b would have been nice since they were on the test. It's not impossible to pass the class, but it makes it more difficult.

Q12 - What did you like most about this course? What went really well?

What did you like most about this course? What went really well?
Breaking things down, some of the theatrics or demonstrations were very helpful in giving me a better understanding of some of the topics.
I liked the sectional and G1000 review, both important topics that were only covered briefly in previous courses.
Enthusiasm
The engaging conversations about politics and different opinions shared.
The instructor
The instructor he was always enthusiastic about what he was doing
The critical thinking questions that the instructor asks us in class.
I enjoyed the discussions in class and how they correlated to student experiences. Also, having Lt. King speak in our class was interesting. I think future students would appreciate having the LT or another speaker to come to class.
The real life stories the instructor used to give the students an understanding of the material covered.
Even when I was in a bad mood and discouraged, this class kept me engaged and interested
You know how there are just some class you want to skip or leave early, well this class I actually wanted to come every time and stay the whole time. I enjoyed every lecture from the professor.
Professor Walden made this course well worth taking. I really enjoyed his enthusiasm every night. He is very well informed and up to date with the subject. Because of him I found enjoyment for going to school.
The instructor made it very fun and also did a great job explaining the subject
Everything went really well for me because of the way or professor was teaching he made it easy for me to understand his class.
The instructor was very enthusiastic on what he was teaching and wasn't boring. He would gladly help anybody. Its really hard to find a good instructor like this one, I learned a lot in this course
I learned a lot, Professor Walden put the material in terms everyone could understand even if it meant breaking down it piece by piece.
The Idea I could make up classes, given I missed classes a couple times due to family emergencies
I liked the instructor.
The instructor has a definite love and passion for flying and it was infectious. He made the class enjoyable for everyone and he was definitely the most enjoyable part of the course.
The main thing is how I believe the material learned I will actually be able to use in my field of study rather than some classes. What went really well was my instructor I couldn't have asked for a better professor, he knew the field well and was able to give real world tips in the aviation industry.
The reviews and discussions.
The discussions. It wasn't just a beat you to death with lectures straight from the book. The students had the chance to be involved in talking amongst other students and the teacher about issues and things that are going well in society. It was kind of like a debate.
That the instructor keeps the class very interesting and it keeps you focus on the subject.
The professor, Awesome guy

The way he taught, his approach to the students.

Instructor was a great person. Fun to go to class

I really learned a lot, & I enjoyed that. The friendliness/helpfulness of the staff was impeccable. Very interested in helping students learn, & interesting to talk to. I appreciate that.

Q14 - List any ways that this course could have been improved to meet your academic needs. I take this very seriously and appreciate your help on finding new ways to improve the course.

List any ways that this course could have been improved to meet your academ...
I honestly like how it just how it was, there was the structure with assignments that I need, but also the loose flow of inside the classroom and the discussions were really great.
None
The course seemed just fine to me! Engaging with students and making them think about different views helps students get involved.
Maybe more guest speakers?
Maybe continuing on with the style of teaching that the instructor currently has. It is not your typical class. I was not very interested in politics before. Now, I think that this class has made me want to be more aware of how our officials affect citizens.
Maybe more hands on problems rather than videos to explain the material. Especially in the TO and FROM VOR section
Maybe go more along with the book. Also, I think I would have benefited more from doing the reading, getting a lecture, doing the homework, then taking the quiz. Rather than doing the reading, taking the quiz, then doing the homework.
I don't think there's anything I can think of. I like how he encouraged us to be engage in every of his lecture and how we can voice our opinions without being judge. I also like his way of teaching and how he would explain it in depth if we don't understand. Overall I think he was an awesome professor and I would take his class again if I were to go into any other kind of government class.
Not sure...
Find more speakers to speak to the students.
Everything was perfect, it surpassed my needs
NA
I would like Professor Walden to slow down in his lessons.
Other than what I have previously mentioned, I can't think of any deficiencies with the course.
Only way to improve the course would be to incorporate more of the management students on how the knowledge from the course will help them in their career. I know it is a pilot based class, but a few examples for the management students would be my only suggestion.
N/A
Maybe more meetings in a week?
Don't watch those videos. Class went way better when the instructor taught it himself with no videos.
Stay on course. Teach the class. It's about aviation, not about what style of clothes people wore in the 70's or 80's. I don't really care for what they wore either, but it was a big distraction for me to have to listen to comments about it. Mr. Walden is a good teacher & I think will be a great teacher with some more experience. I am not an educator, but I have been around educators for years, & I understand what makes a good teacher. Mr. Walden has what it takes to be a great teacher. It would be interesting for me to take this class again in 2-3 years & note the improvement I know that is going to be made. Thanks for a great class!
